SYDNEY LEARNING ADVENTURES YEAR 3/4 CLASSES FRIDAY 4 MAY 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

As part of our learning about Identity and Diversity, Tidbinbilla students will be spending the day learning about identities of the past. They will travel to The Rocks in Sydney to participate in two learning programs across the day, Dirt Detectives and Ngara.

Dirt Detectives: Students will work as archaeologists to excavate artefacts from indoor an archaeological dig, and use their investigative skills to discover what life was really like for the convicts who lived in The Rocks during the early years of the colony.

Ngara: Ngara means listen/hear/think in the language of the Gadigal people, the original people of The Rocks area. Students will learn about the history of Aboriginal people from an Aboriginal perspective. Hear the stories of the strong role models in our past such as Cora Gooseberry, Barangaroo, Patyegarang, Bungaree, Colebee, Arabanoo, Pemulwuy and Windradyne. Students will discover some of the important milestones in Aboriginal political history and the people, both Aboriginal and non Aboriginal, who have made these things happen. They will learn Aboriginal place names for areas around The Rocks and some of the important historical events that impacted on the lives of Aboriginal people.

To assist us with planning and preparation of the excursion, permission notes and payment need to be returned to the school by Friday 13 April.

It is customary for the school to request a financial contribution towards meeting the cost of your child's participation in this excursion. These contributions are voluntary. The school has made every effort to keep costs for this activity at a reasonable level. If however there is insufficient total funding available to meet the cost of the excursion, regrettably we will not be able to proceed.

Staff accompanying students on excursions will take all reasonable care while the students are in their charge to protect them from injury and to control and supervise their behaviour and activities. Parents should be aware that staff members are not responsible for injuries or damage to property which may occur on an excursion where, in all circumstances, staff have not been negligent. Parents should warn children of the risk to themselves, to others and to property, of impulsive, wilful or disobedient behaviour.

In the case of unacceptable or dangerous behaviour, arrangements may be made to exclude a child or arrange for them to be sent home at the expense of the parents.

If you fill in this form, your personal information and that of your child will be collected and handled by the ACT Education and Training Directorate (ETD) (Bonython Primary School). This information is necessary for us to manage student participation and attendance at the event, and support the welfare and safety of your child. If you do not consent to supply us with this information your child will be unable to attend/participate in the event. Normally, we will not use or disclose this information for another purpose, without your consent, unless you would reasonably expect us to use or disclose the information for a related purpose. While we will not usually disclose this information to third parties, we may share this information with other public (i.e. government) and non-government schools in the case of inter-school or inter-state state events in order to manage the event effectively. The Directorate has a privacy policy that explains how we handle personal information, including how we handle privacy complaints. The policy is available on the Directorate's website (www.det.act.gov.au) on the About Us page.
